For the 18th year iLoveInns.com has selected the Top 10 Romantic Inns

It has never been easier to surprise your sweetie with a romantic getaway. These 2011 Top 10 Romantic Inns, chosen by iLoveInns.com after months of research and deliberation, provide the perfect location, world-class hospitality, personalized touch and loving environment that dreams are made of.

As iLoveInns.com president and 30-year bed and breakfast connoisseur Deborah Sakach remarks, "These kinds of properties deeply touch the hearts of their guests. In our research for romantic inns, in addition to talking to hundreds of innkeepers and guests, we read thousands and thousands of reviews. We felt the joy in their statements such as, "We left feeling rejuvenated and happier than ever to be married to each other!" and "We plan to return every year and think of it as our happy place," or "Life's tensions melted away in this glorious setting."

There is nothing as enlivening as an inn getaway to fine tune a relationship. No matter how you define romance, Cupid's arrows are pointed at these great inns for an anniversary celebration, spontaneous getaway or a Valentine's hideaway. They create the perfect setting to let love bloom or rekindle the fire. Sakach reported she and her staff believe "choosing one of these inns will make the lover who picked the getaway spot an absolute hero or heroine."
